Overview Video: https://youtu.be/LQwyAhmNzoQ

- 1. Create a repository on github, use the format ucid-course-section as the repository name.
- 2. Make sure it's set to private
- Go to Settings -> Manage Access -> Invite Collaborator -> Search for my ID MattToegel and send an invite; if your section has a grader do the same for their github username (refer to course announcements)
  - Note: Once in a while the invite doesn't get created correctly and you'll need to resend it, keep an eye on the acceptance of the invite since this is required for further HW validations. A comment will be left on Canvas for the submission if the invite is missing at the time of grading).
- From the terminal / command line create a new branch called M1-GettingStarted
- Create a README.md file and add it to the branch
- Fill in some basic details:
  - Course/Section
  - Your name (first is fine)
  - Brief info about yourself you'd like to share
- Hint after creating the file
  - 1. git add README.md
  - git commit -m "my readme file"
  - git push origin M1-GettingStarted
  - 4. Create a pull request from this branch (via github.com)
  - Don't merge/close the pull request yet
- Fill in the below deliverables.
- 9. Once finished, ensure it's saved and click the "Export" button.

- Move the generated PDF into your local repository folder at any location of your choosing.
- Do the following commands
  - 1. git add . (this will add all changes)
  - 2. git commit -m "adding output file"
  - 3. git push origin M1-GettingStarted
- 12. Go back to github and merge the pull request that was opened
- 13. Go to Canvas and upload the same PDF that you just downloaded and pushed to GitHub

Note: Having the submission saved and active keeps it eligible for grading.

■, Task Response Prompt

Response:

About this module getting started with Git Branches and adding file and committing changes, everything is new to me and i am very intrested to learn more deep in this. I am using Github for like 1-2 years but Git bash is completely new to me and im glad im enjoying it.
